

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Prescott Summer Farmers Market

Saturdays 7:30 AM–12 PM | Yavapai College Parking Area #D
This market hosts numerous local farmers and ranchers, as well as food and craft vendors.

Sept. 27–Oct. 27, Pumpkin Festival & Corn Maze

Mortimer Farms
Fun for the whole family includes “A-Maize-ing” attractions, games, farm activities, a barn dance, and more!

Oct. 4–5, Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo

Findlay Toyota Center
The event features the region’s best rodeo talent competing in several events such as bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing, and bull riding!

Oct. 4–6, Prescott Area Artist Studio Tour

10 am–4 pm | www.PrescottStudioTour.com
A special opportunity to visit many of the Quad-City area’s talented artists as they work in their studios. This celebration of local art will showcase 75 juried artists in 51 private studios, as well as 26 additional artists in three Art Centers. Begin at any location, meet the artists, observe their creative processes, and purchase unique works of art. Free and self-guided.

Oct. 5, Mile High Comedy Theater

7–9 pm | Elks Theatre
Mile High Comedy Theater is back with an evening of brand new stand-up and improvisational comedy! The evening will feature stand-up comedy and improv games with the cast of Mile High Comedy Theater. If you like improvisational comedy like “Whose Line is It Anyway,” you’re going to love Mile High’s brand of comedy. You become a part of the show too, as your suggestions help make each show completely new and original.

Oct. 5, Gardening for Newcomers

9:30–10:30 am | Watters Garden Center
Learn all the mountain secrets to local garden success. This is an information-packed class guaranteed to increase garden blooms and fruit this year. Learn about growing zones, frost dates, soils, and more; you’ll know exactly what to do in the gardens after this class. Free.

Oct. 5–6, Folk Music Festival

8 am–5 pm | Sharlot Hall Museum
Enjoy the music of more than 200 musicians from throughout the Southwest, with 90-plus performances at four venues on the Museum campus. Bring your own instruments and jam with the artists at this longest-running folk music event in the state!

Oct. 6, Sibelius’ Fifth Symphony

3–5 pm | Yavapai College Performing Arts Center
Explore the music of Finland. Sibelius’ Fifth Symphony represents the epitome of tonal romanticism, but many of his works explore new realms and structure.

Oct. 10, Clint Black

7:30–9:30 pm | Yavapai College Performing Arts Center
Thirty years after his triple-platinum album Killin’ Time, Clint Black is still thrilling audiences with his long-awaited anniversary tour, featuring “A Better Man,” “Nothin’ But the Taillights,” and more of his twenty-two hit singles.

Oct. 11–13, The Big Sting—It’s a Country Thing

3–11:30 pm | Watson Lake
Come see what all of the buzz is about. Escape to the country for an exclusive music camp-out weekend in the rocks with 3,000 of your closest friends out at Watson Lake in Prescott. Concerts, food, beer, camping, family, friends, sunshine, corn hole, other games, and more!

Oct. 11–13, Historic Prescott All Corvette Car Show

10 am–2 pm | Downtown Prescott on the Square
Car show. Free to the public.

Oct. 12, Aretha: Long Live the Queen

7–9 pm | Elks Theatre
Aretha Franklin isn’t just an icon of American soul music—she’s THE icon of American soul music. The legacy she created paved the way and inspired musicians from all walks of life. Tour de force performer Crystal Stark lovingly pays tribute to the multi-Grammy winning legend in Aretha: Long Live the Queen. The show will feature Aretha’s most powerful hits, introspective ballads, and everything else along the way. It’s a tribute fit for a queen.

Oct. 14, We Will Rock You! The Musical

7–9 pm | Findlay Toyota Center
We Will Rock You! is a Queen-inspired rock musical that follows two revolutionaries on a quest to save rock ‘n’ roll in a post-apocalyptic world where there are no musical instruments and rock ‘n’ roll has died.

Oct. 15, Prescott Center for the Arts Golf Tournament

10:30 am–7 pm | Capital Canyon Club
Fundraising tournament for the PCA Capital Campaign and to celebrate the 50th Anniversary Season. Sign in at 10:30, shotgun start at noon followed by dinner. Lots of prizes and a champion Long Drive Pro to help you through one of the Par 5s.

...continued from front

Oct. 18, Dixie Chicks

7-9 pm | Elks Theatre

Heather Stricker, Chelsee Hicks, and Janée Page come together to celebrate the music of the award-winning country trio The Dixie Chicks! Enjoy an evening filled with favorites like "Some Days You Gotta Dance," "Cowboy Take Me Away," and "Goodbye Earl," along with a few surprises.

Oct. 19, Circle L. Ranch Halloween Fundraiser

10 am-3 pm | Circle L. Ranch Animal Rescue & Sanctuary

Halloween Fundraiser. Meet many of the 200 animals on a ranch tour and enjoy games, face-painting, snacks, a great raffle, and more! $5.00/person 13 and over (includes tour).

Oct. 19, Everybody's Hometown Festival

11 am-10 pm | Downtown Prescott on the Square

Each street features a theme specific to Prescott including local bands, food from local restaurants, local breweries, and family fun!

Oct. 24, Dracula

7:30-10 pm | Prescott Center of the Arts

This new adaptation by Steven Dietz restores the suspense and seduction of Bram Stoker's classic novel to the stage. Rich with both humor and horror, this play paints a wickedly theatrical picture of Stoker's famous vampire.

Oct. 25, Jessica Fichot

7-9 pm | Yavapai College Performing Arts Center

Accompanied by her accordion, a toy piano, and a fiery band, singer/songwriter Jessica Fichot's fusion of Shanghai jazz, gypsy swing, and folk music has made her a sensation on the West Coast and abroad. Don't miss this captivating and original artist in an intimate cabaret setting.

Oct. 25, The Who Experience

7-9 pm | Elks Theatre

The Who Experience is a powerful, realistic tribute to THE WHO with an incredible resemblance to THE WHO both musically and visually. This professional, energetic, fun, and audience-engaging performance is a must see for classic rock fans young and old, and will leave fans screaming for more!

Oct. 26, Walk for Animals

8 am-12 pm | Peavine Trail

Hundreds of animals and the people who love them will gather to walk, raise funds for homeless pets, and enjoy a morning of dog- and family-friendly activities during the Walk for the Animals. Every dollar raised through the Walk helps provide medical treatment, behavior programs, and compassionate care to the more than 3,000 animals who come through YHS each year.

Oct. 26, Rocky Horror Picture Show

7-9:30 pm | Elks Theatre

Come out and enjoy this cult classic film and performance with shadow casting done by One Stage Family Theater.

Oct. 27, Costumes for Kids 5K

10 am-12:30 pm | Downtown Prescott on the Square

Are you someone who takes competitions, philanthropy, exercise, family time, or Halloween seriously? If so, you'll love the Costumes for Kids 5k where all of those elements come together for a day of fun for all ages that benefits the foster children of Yavapai County.

Oct. 29, Haunted House for Kids

5-6:30 pm | Prescott Public Library

Enjoy a mildly-spooky stroll through a dark and twisty haunted house! This family-friendly event is geared for a younger audience. Costumes are encouraged!

Oct. 31, Trick-or-Treating on Mount Vernon

Begins as dusk | Mount Vernon Avenue

Mount Vernon is a residential street lined with beautiful historic Victorian homes. On Halloween, these homes are decorated and transformed into a spooky night right out of an old classic haunted house ghost story.

Oct. 31, Chino Valleys Halloween Festival

5-8 pm | Memory Park, Chino Valley

Come Enjoy Trick-or-Treating in a family-friendly atmosphere. Free Event!

Local Museums

Phippen Museum | 928.778.1385 | phippenartmuseum.com

Sharlot Hall Museum | 928.445.3122 | sharlot.org

Smoki Museum | 928.445.1230 | smokiemuseum.org

KIRSTEN OLSON

Sales Executive

Phone: 928.515.5098

Cell: 928.899.3629

Email: KOLson@LTIC.com

Information deemed reliable but not guaranteed. Check websites to verify as needed.

